

CHICKASAW NATION GALLERY GUIDE

Stickball Player's Pants (to'li' imbalaafokha), c.1908-1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

LEARN MORE

Chickasaw Cultural Center
Sulphur, Oklahoma
(580) 622-7130
chickasawculturalcenter.com

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Chickasaw tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

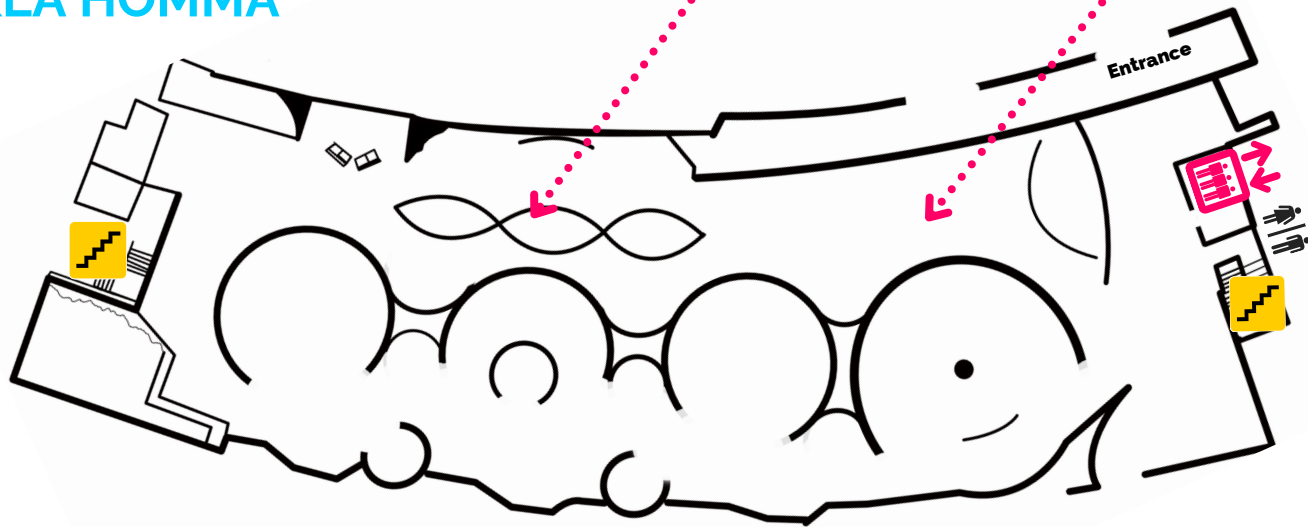

Panel: Chickasaw Stickball Tournament

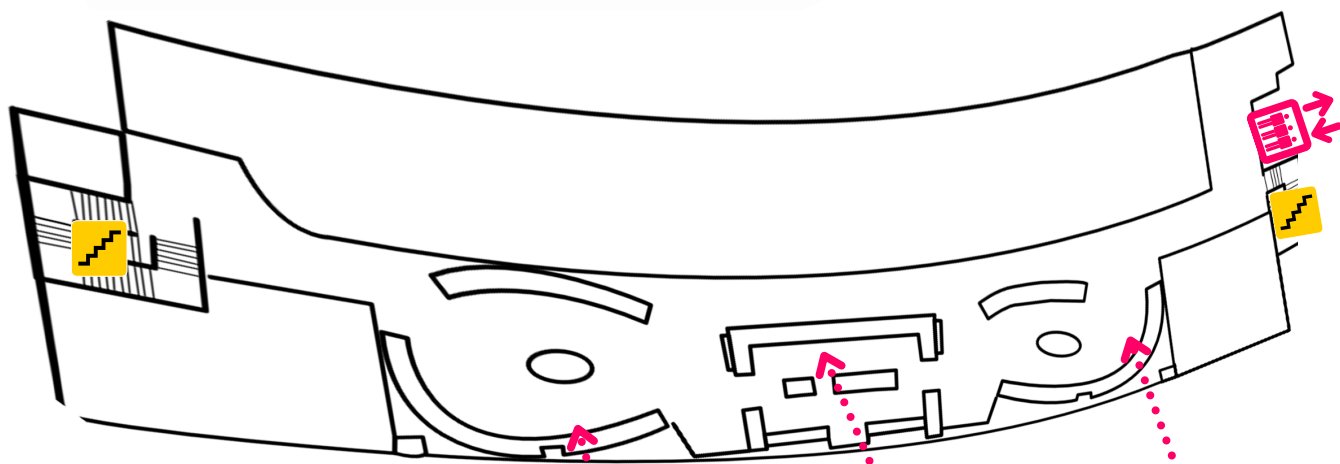

Video: Commander John Herrington

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Chickasaw Stickball Tournament. 2019. Courtesy of the Chickasaw Nation.
- Commander John Herrington. 2020. Courtesy of First Americans Museum.
- Cane (itti' ishtilombitka'). c. 1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Pipe Tomahawk (oksj foshi' chomak aapofa'). c. prior to 1838. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Stickball Player's Pants (to'li' imbalaafokha). c.1908-1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Cane (detail)

Object: Pipe Tomahawk (Detail)

Object: Stickball Players Pants (Detail)