

CHOCTAW NATION GALLERY GUIDE

Basket with Cover (tvpushik micha isht ompohulmo). c. 1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indians, Smithsonian Institute.

LEARN MORE

Choctaw Cultural Center
Calera, Oklahoma
(580) 326-7521
choctawculturalcenter.com

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Choctaw tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

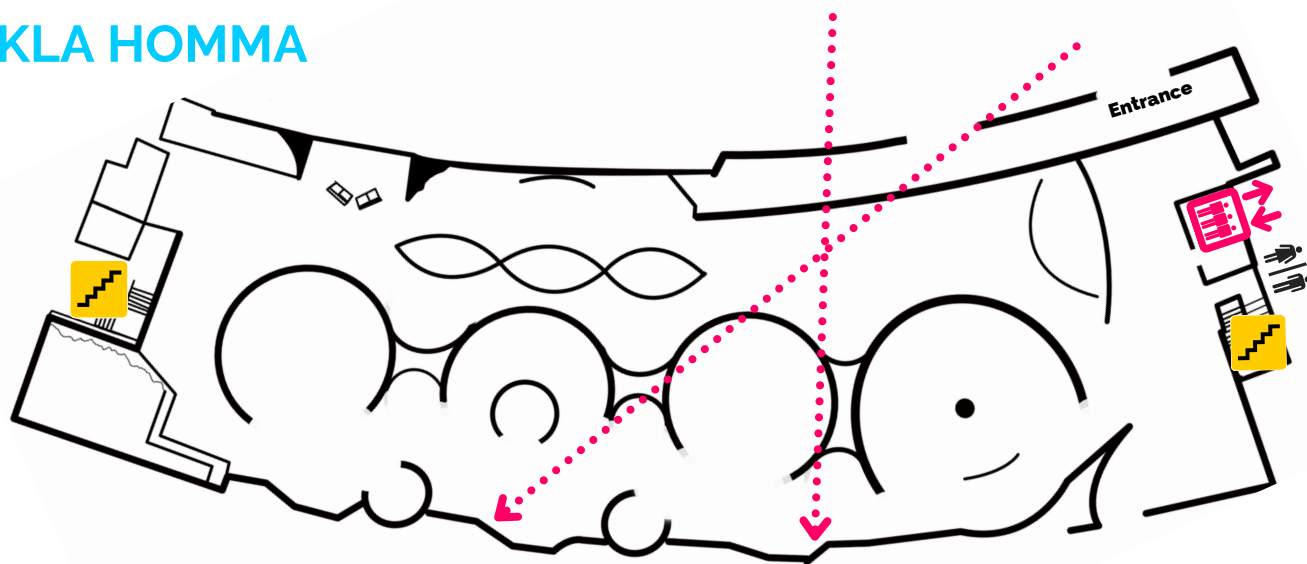

Video: Stacey Halfmoon, Choctaw Cultural Center

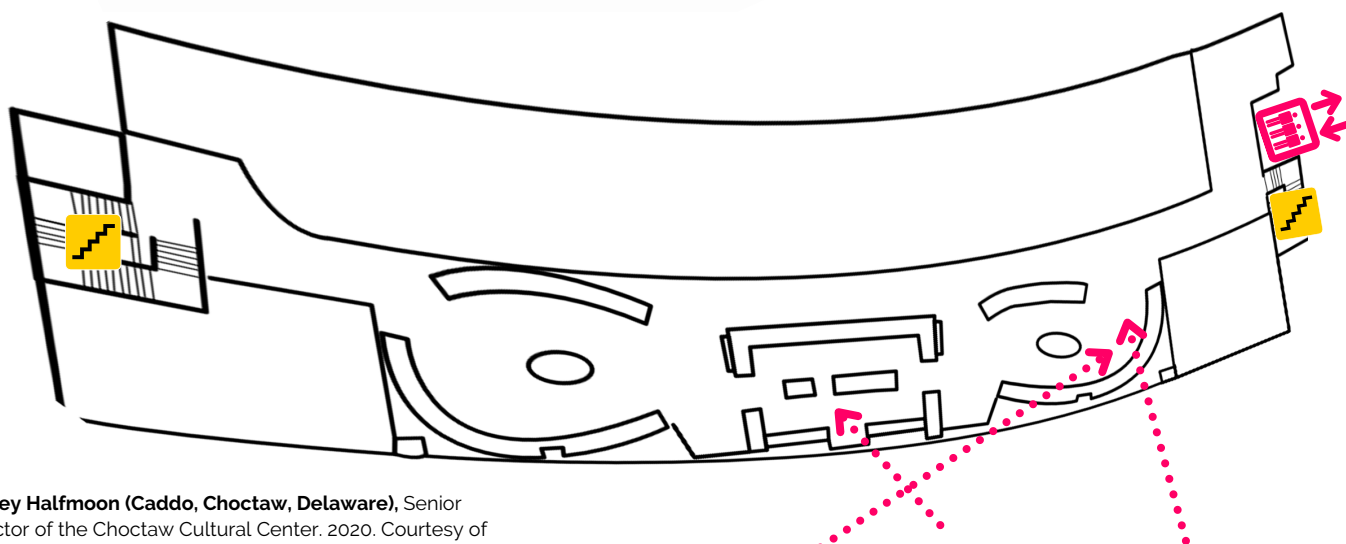

Object: Sophia Pitchlynn's Choctaw Bible

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Stacey Halfmoon (Caddo, Choctaw, Delaware), Senior Director of the Choctaw Cultural Center. 2020. Courtesy of First Americans Museum.
- Sophia Pitchlynn's Choctaw Bible. c. 1839. Courtesy of Gena Timberman (Choctaw).
- Stickball Cap (shvpo). c. 1908. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Sash (iskuffvchi). c. 1965. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Stickball Game Tail (towa washoha hasimbish). c. 1908-1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Stickball Cap

Object: Sash (detail)

Object: Stickball Game Tail (detail)