

COMANCHE NATION GALLERY GUIDE

Child's Coat (tue?tutsi pia kwasu). c. 1909. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

LEARN MORE

Comanche Nation Museum and Cultural Center

Lawton, Oklahoma
(580) 353-0404
comanchemuseum.com

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Comanche tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

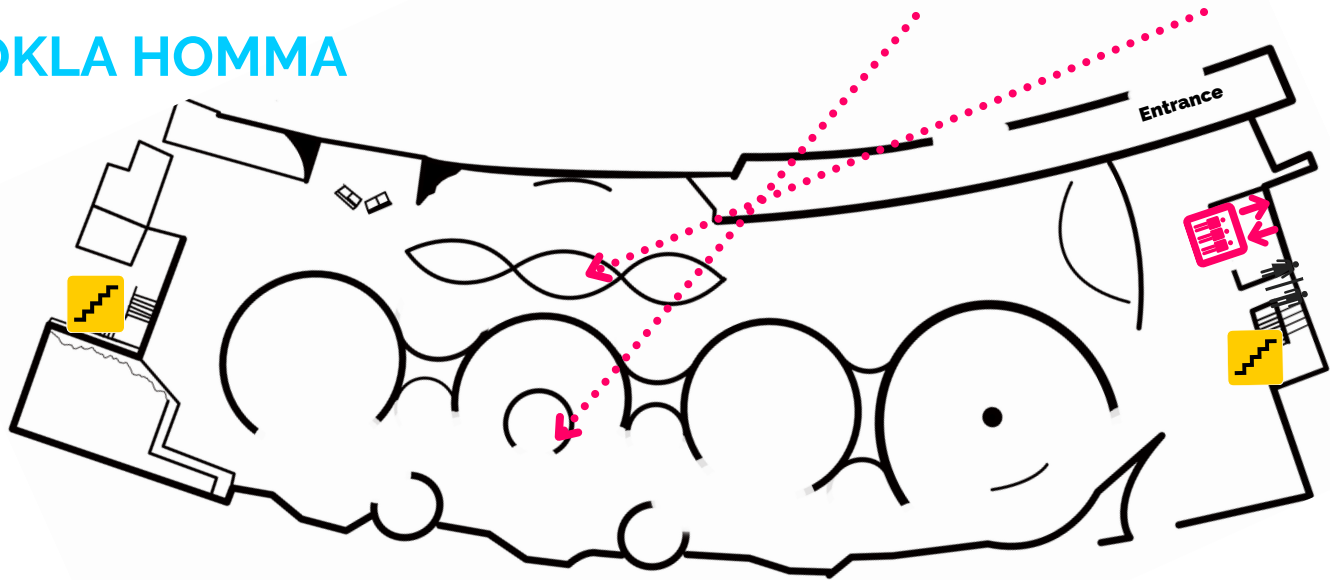

Panel: Replica US Calvary Indian Grave Marker (Detail)

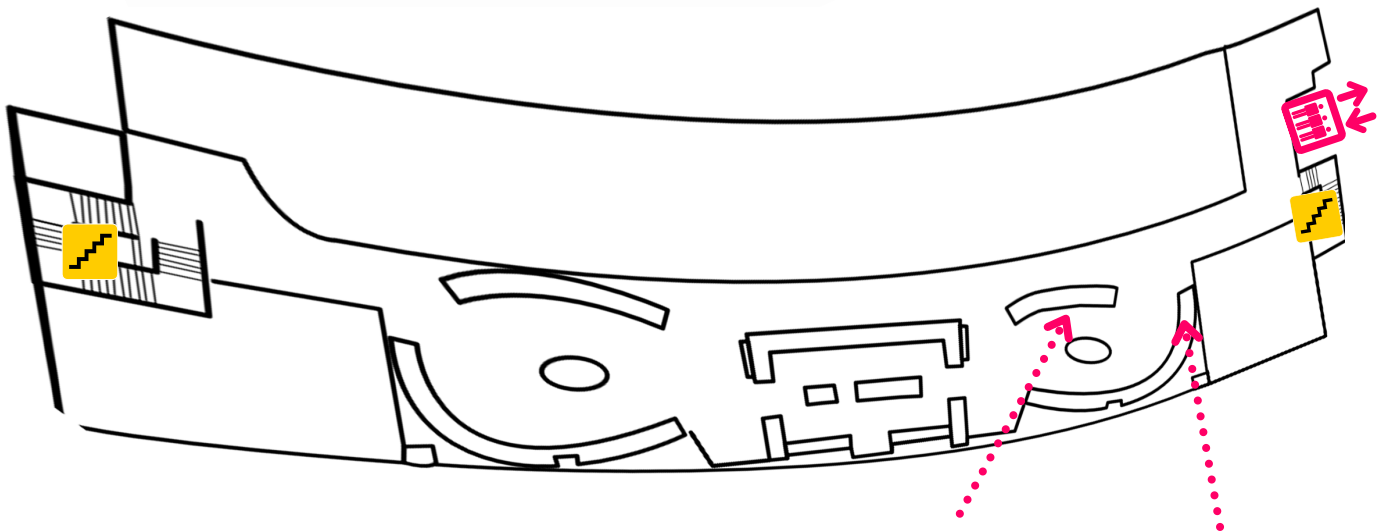

Panel: Middleweight Boxer George Tahdoahnippah

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Doug Hill and Scott T. Jones (Comanche). US Calvary Indian Grave Marker (Replica). 2020. Commissioned from the Artist.
- Steve Marcus. George Tahdoahnippah (Comanche/Kiowa). 2016. Courtesy of Steve Marcus/Getty Images Sports.
- Awl (tsunip̄ wiyu). c. 1909. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Child's Coat (t̄e?t̄utsi pia kwasu). c. 1909. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Awl

Object Child's Coat (detail)