

First Americans Museum

MODOC TRIBE GALLERY GUIDE

Spoon (lok pushpushli mitco), c. 1900-1945. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

LEARN MORE

The Patricia Trolinger Tribal Resource Library and Genealogy Center

Miami, Oklahoma

(918) 994-1819

modocnation.com/library

FAM EXHIBITIONS

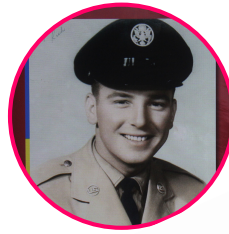

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Modoc tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

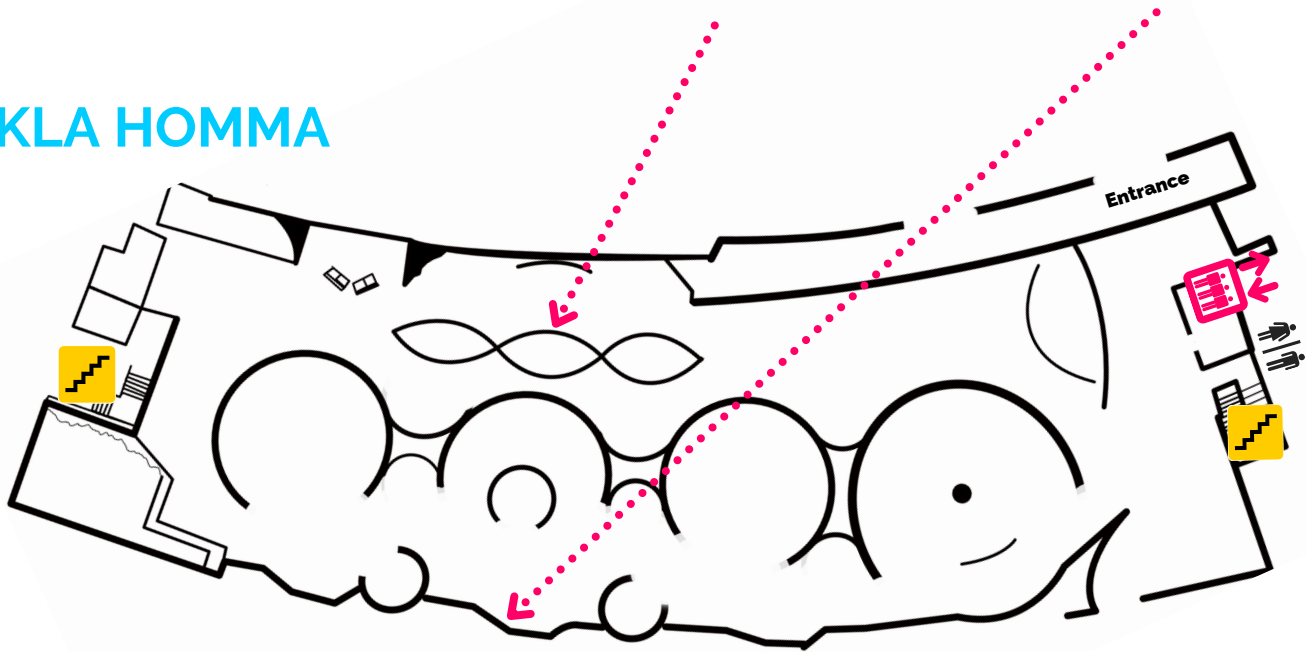

Interactive: Richard Boggs

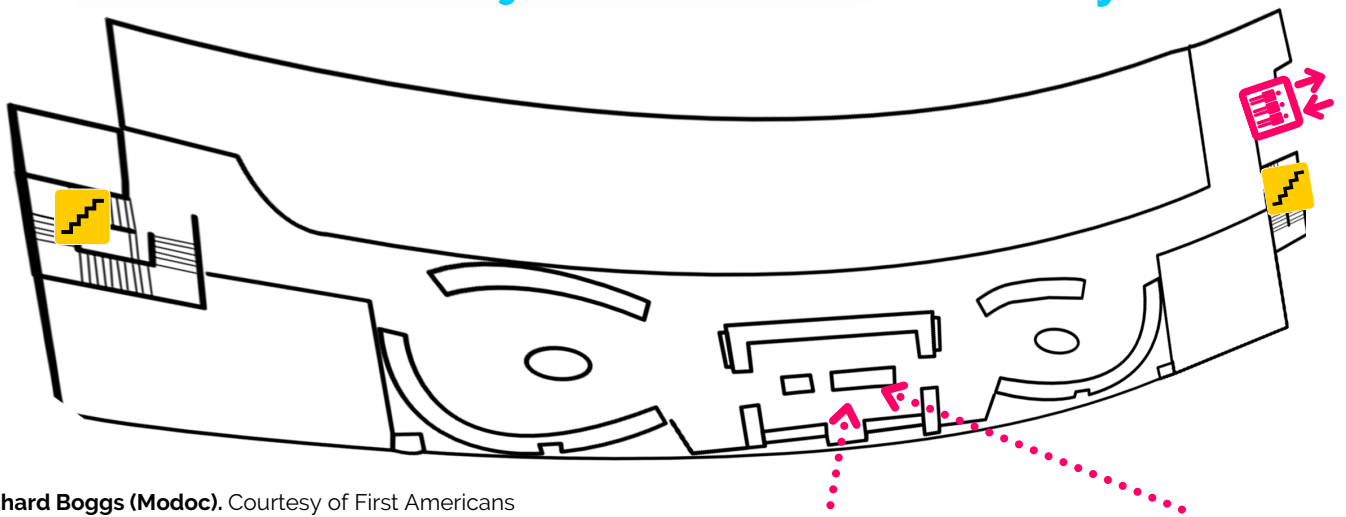

Panel: Camp Modoc

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Richard Boggs (Modoc). Courtesy of First Americans Museum.
- Camp Modoc, Indian Territory. c. 1888. Courtesy of Denver Public Library, Western History Collection.
- Bandolier Bag. Date Unknown. Courtesy of Museum of the Red River, Idabel, Oklahoma.
- Tule Moccasins (tc'u i wäs khma), c. 1920. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Woman's Basket Cap (ati wiuka), c. 1908. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Tule Moccasins

Object: Woman's Basket Cap