

OSAGE NATION GALLERY GUIDE

Man's Coat. c. 1908. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution

LEARN MORE

Osage Nation Museum

Pawhuska, Oklahoma

(918) 287-5441

visittheosage.com/places/osage-nation-museum/

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Osage tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

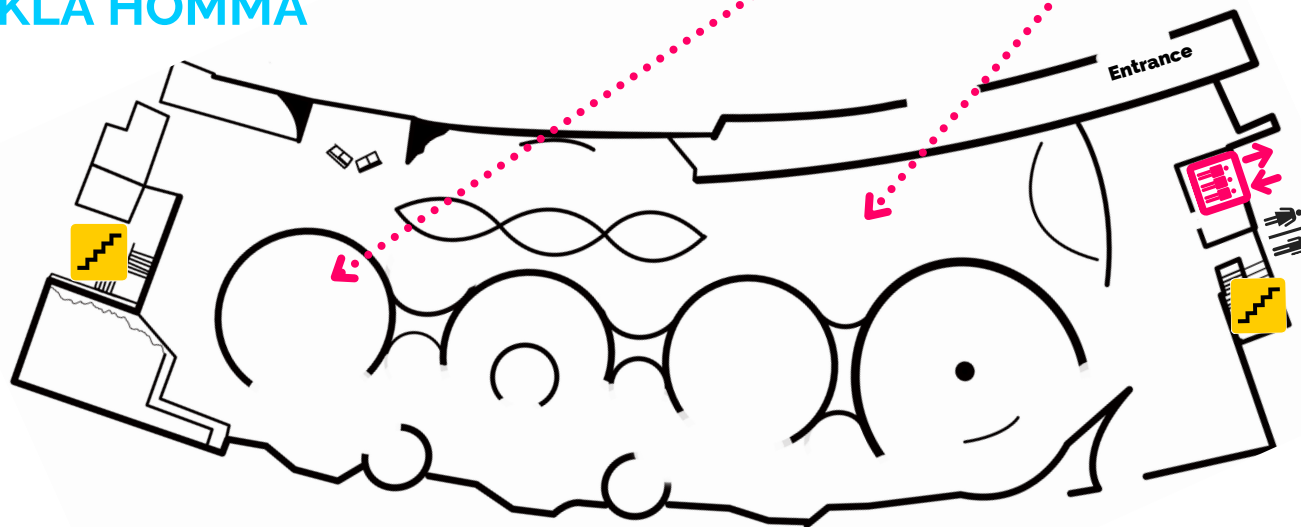

Panel: Ballerina Maria Tallchief

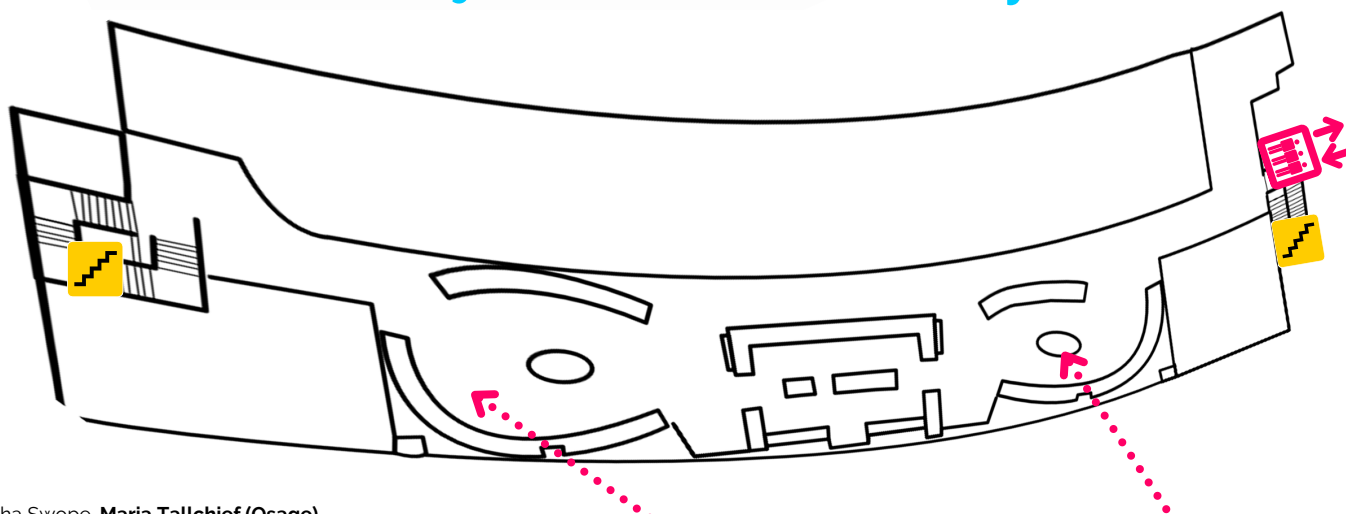

Panel: Major General Clarence L. Tinker

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Martha Swope. Maria Tallchief (Osage) performing Firebird with the New York City Ballet. 1966. Courtesy of the New York Public Library for the Performing Arts.
- Clarence L. Tinker (Osage) in Uniform. date unknown. Courtesy of Osage Nation Museum Collection.
- War Club. c. 1908. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Man's Coat. c. 1908. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: War Club (Detail)

Object: Man's Coat (detail)