

First Americans Museum

PONCA TRIBE OF INDIANS OF OKLAHOMA GALLERY GUIDE

Man's Leggings (há'utà). c. 1853-1929.
Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian
Institution.

LEARN MORE

Tribal Historic

Preservation Office

Ponca City, Oklahoma

(580) 762-8104

ponca.com

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Ponca tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

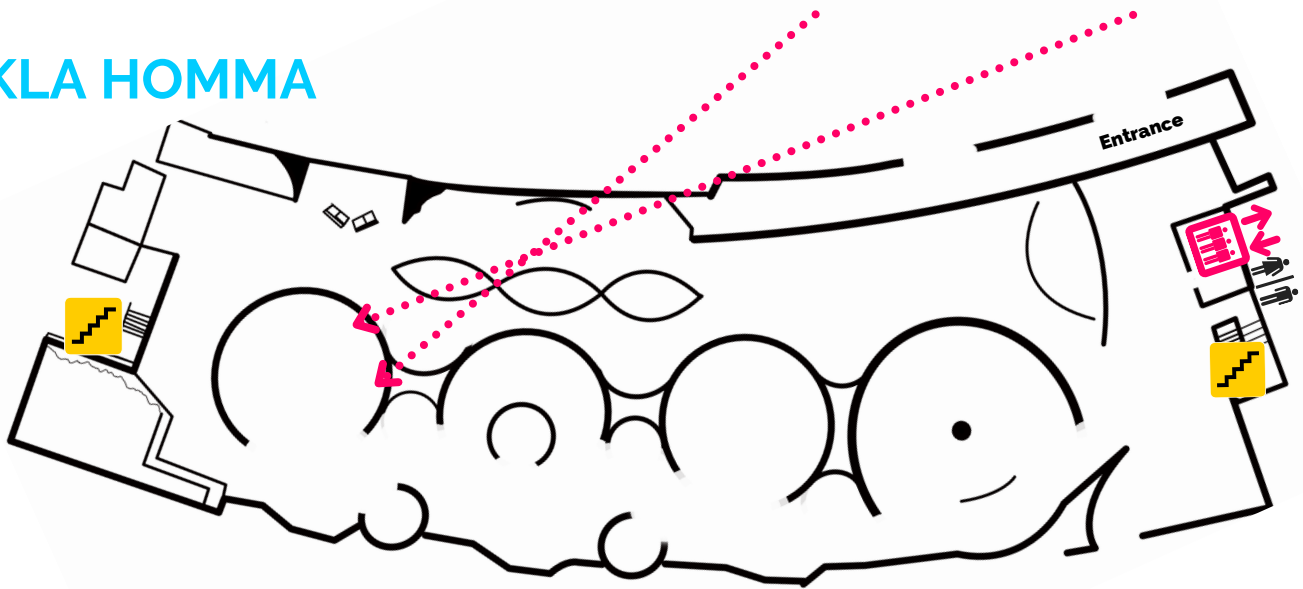

Panel: 5-year old powwow performers

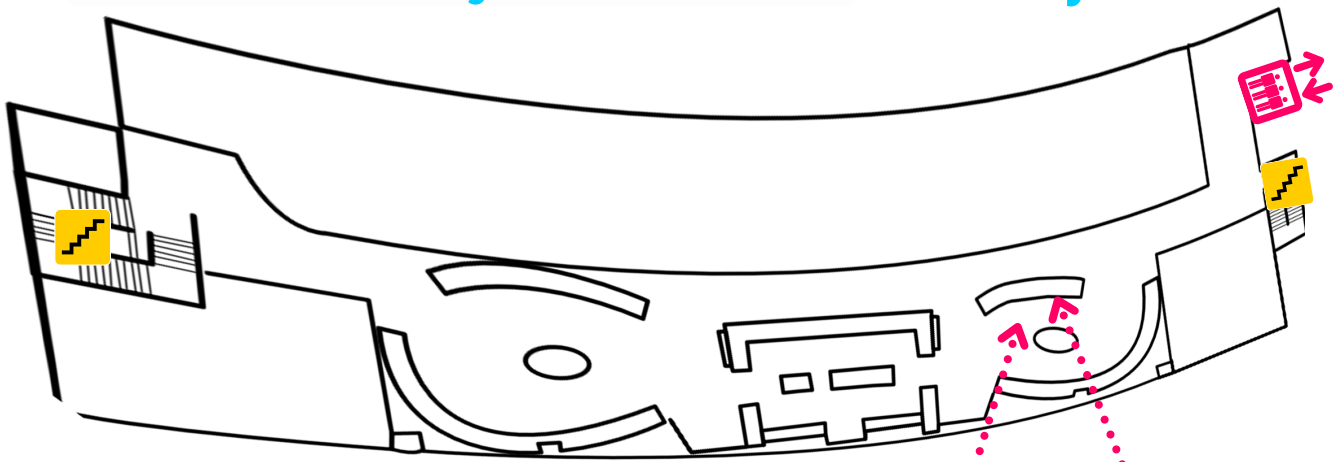

Panel: "What If She Was Your Daughter?"

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- 5-year-old Eagle Dance Performers (Ponca). 1960. Courtesy of Oklahoma City Historical Society.
- What if She Was Your Daughter?. 2019. Courtesy of RAIN/Somebody's Daughter.
- Casey Camp-Horinek (Ponca), Environmental Ambassador, Elder & Hereditary Drumkeeper. 2020. Courtesy of First Americans Museum.
- Sewing Bag (wé'batè úži). c.1914. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Hide Scraper (wébaù). c. 1914. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Sewing Bag

Object: Hide Scraper