

First Americans Museum

SEMINOLE NATION OF OKLAHOMA GALLERY GUIDE

Breechcloth (takhvkv). c. 1909.
Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian
Institution.

LEARN MORE

Seminole Nation Museum

Wewoka, Oklahoma

(405) 257-5580

seminolenationmuseum.org

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Seminole tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

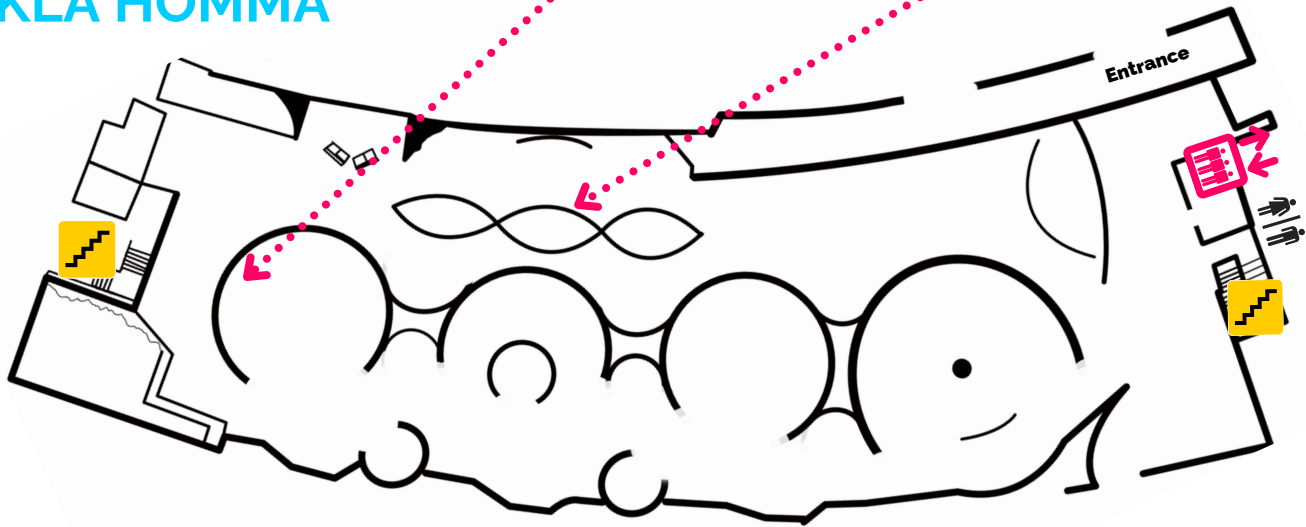

Panel: Senator Kelly Haney

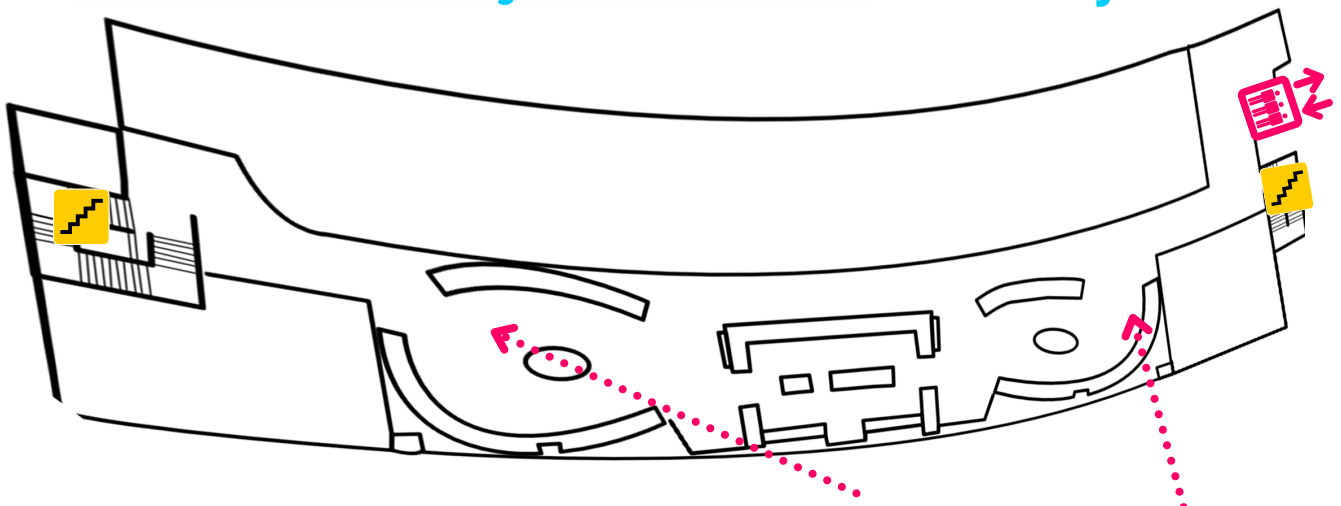

Panel: Tennessee Titan Papi White

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- State Senator Kelly Haney (Seminole). 1994. Photograph by Jim Beckell. Courtesy of Oklahoma Historical Society.
- Papi White (Seminole/Chickasaw/Muscogee [Creek]). 2019. Photography by Patrick McDermott. Courtesy of Patrick McDermott/Getty Images Sport.
- Sash (sewvvnketv). c. 1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Stickball Game Tail (kaccv hvce). c. 1908-1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Sash (detail)

Object: Stickball Game Tail