

SENECA-CAYUGA NATION GALLERY GUIDE

William Tarrant (Seneca-Cayuga).
Seneca-Cayuga Peach Seed Game
Set. 2020. Gift of the Seneca-Cayuga
Tribal Community, 2020.

LEARN MORE

Seneca-Cayuga Nation

Grove, Oklahoma

918-787-5452

sctribe.com

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Seneca-Cayuga tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

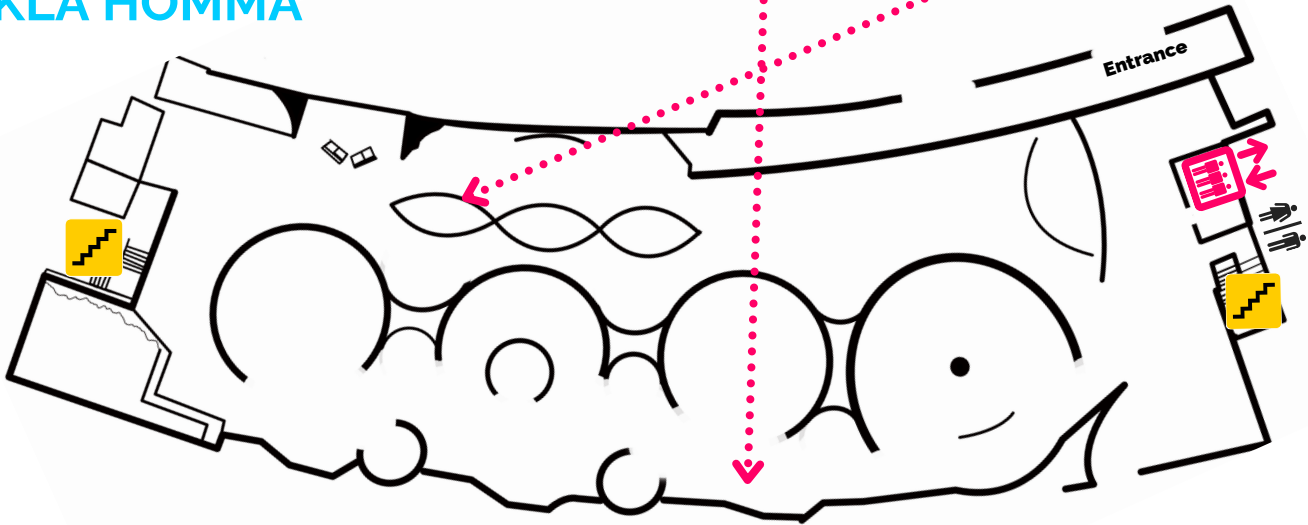

Object: Hopewell Hand (Replica)

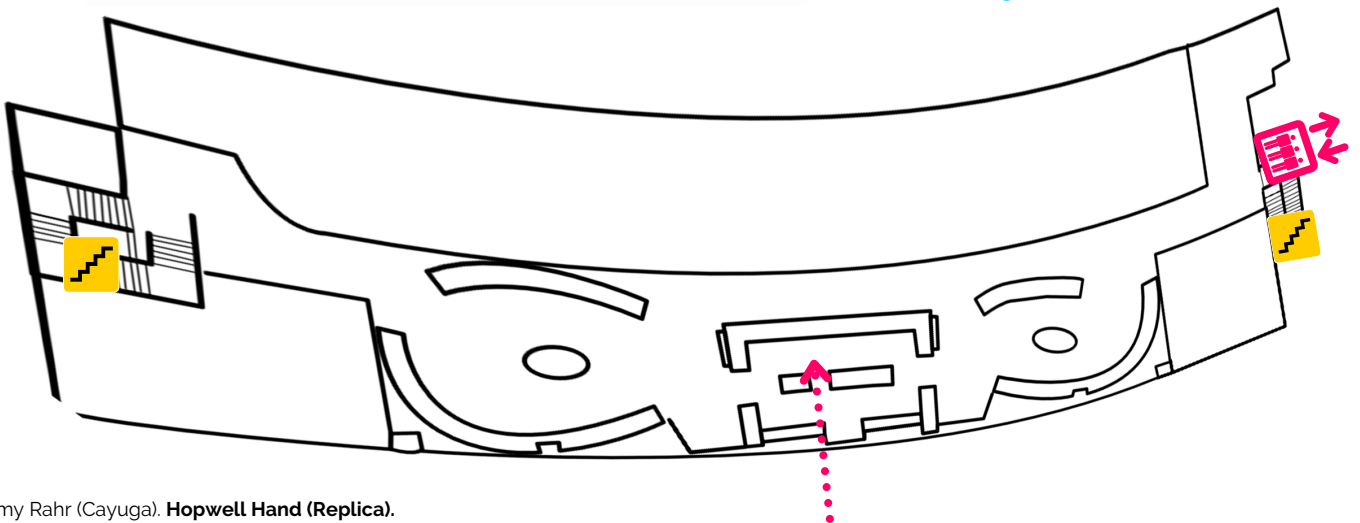

Panel: The Bowl Game

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Tammy Rahr (Cayuga). Hopwell Hand (Replica). 2020. Commissioned from the Artist
- Ernest P. Smith (Seneca). The Bowl Game. 1969. Courtesy of the National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Ice Slider (gahq:waʔ), date unknown. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Ice Slider