

CHEROKEE NATION GALLERY GUIDE

Joseph Erb (Cherokee Nation).
Indigenous Brilliance. 2021.
Commissioned from the Artist.

LEARN MORE

Cherokee Heritage Center
Tahlequah, Oklahoma
(918) 456-6007
cherokeeheritage.org

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Cherokee tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

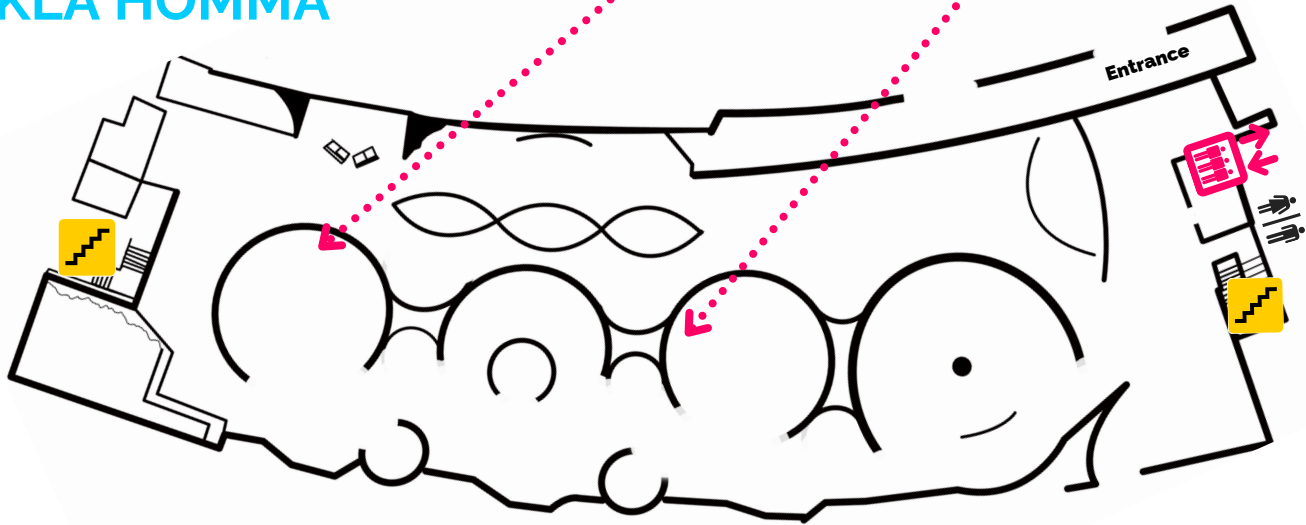

Panel: Wes Studi

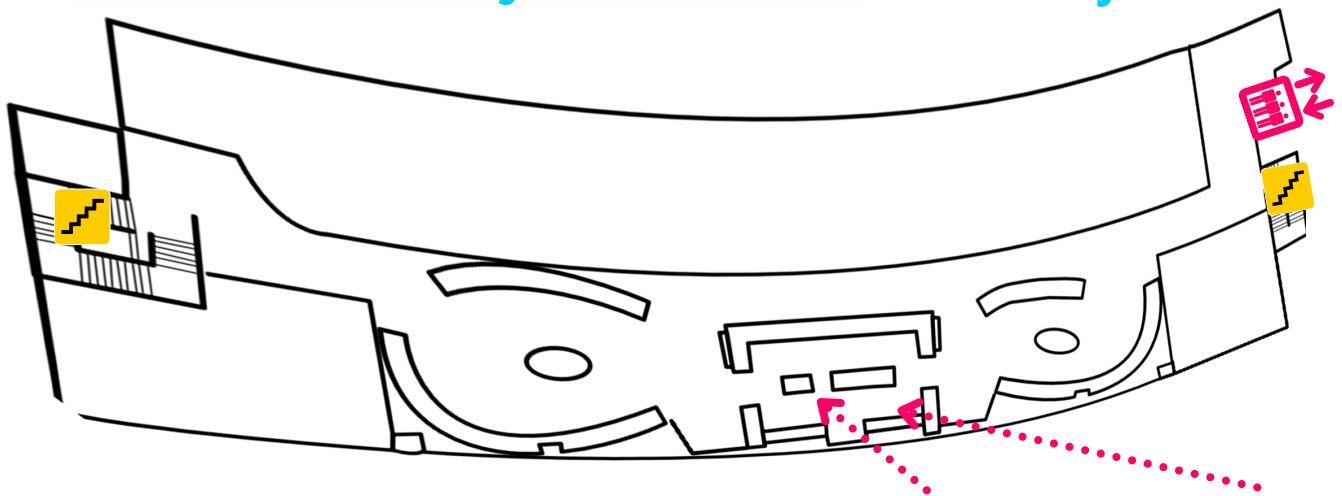

Panel: Women's Voices at the Council

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Wes Studi (Cherokee) accepts honorary award at the Governors Awards, Academy Motion Picture of Arts and Sciences. 2019. Photograph by Chris Pizzello. Courtesy of Chris Pizzello/Invision/AP.
- Joan Hill (Muscogee [Creek]/Cherokee). Women's Voices at the Council. 1990. Courtesy of Oklahoma Arts Council, Oklahoma State Art Collection.
- Vivian Cottrell (Cherokee Nation). Hulling Basket (DSʒl). 2020. Commissioned from the Artist.
- Martha Berry (Cherokee Nation). Floral Journey with a Twist. 2014. Courtesy of the Cherokee Nation.

Object: Hulling Basket

Object: Floral Journey with a Twist