

First Americans Museum

DELAWARE TRIBE OF INDIANS GALLERY GUIDE

Ruthe Blalock Jones
(Delaware/Peoria/Shawnee. Peyote Breakfast II (Reproduction)). 1998. Courtesy of Gilcrease Museum, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

LEARN MORE

Tribal Archives

Bartlesville, Oklahoma
(918) 337-6595
delawaretribe.org

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Delaware Tribe of Indians tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

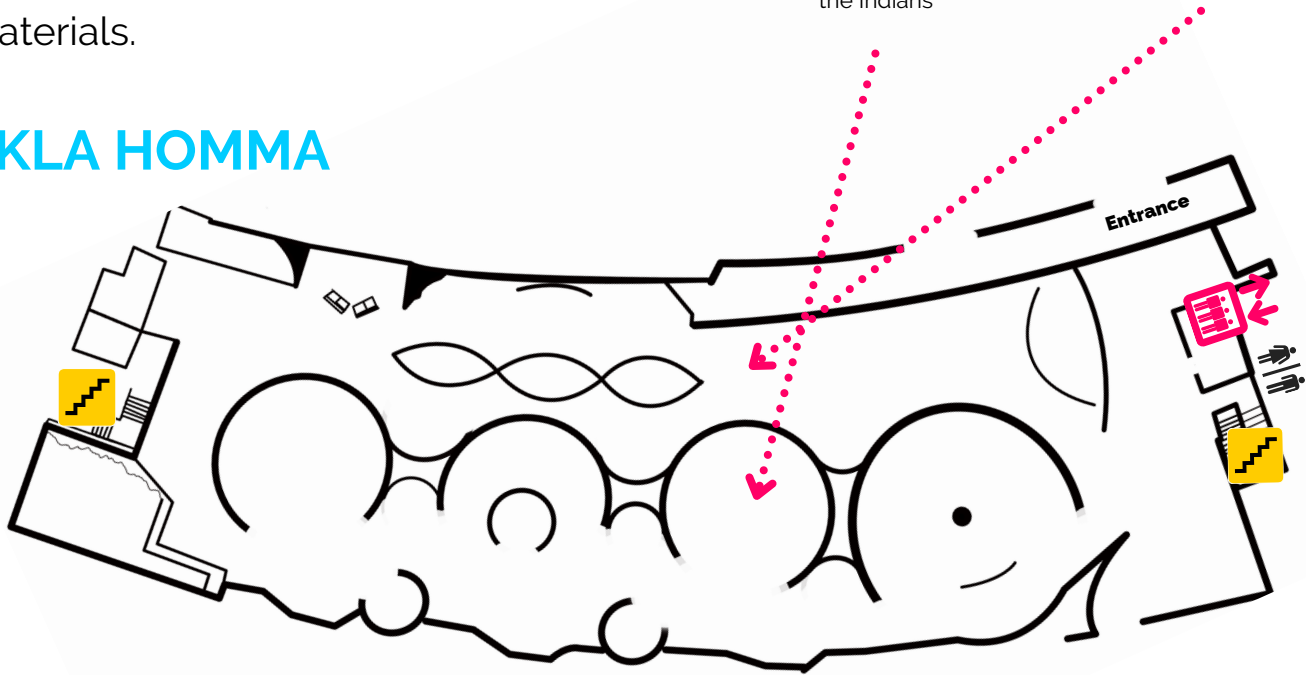

Panel: Penn's Treaty with the Indians

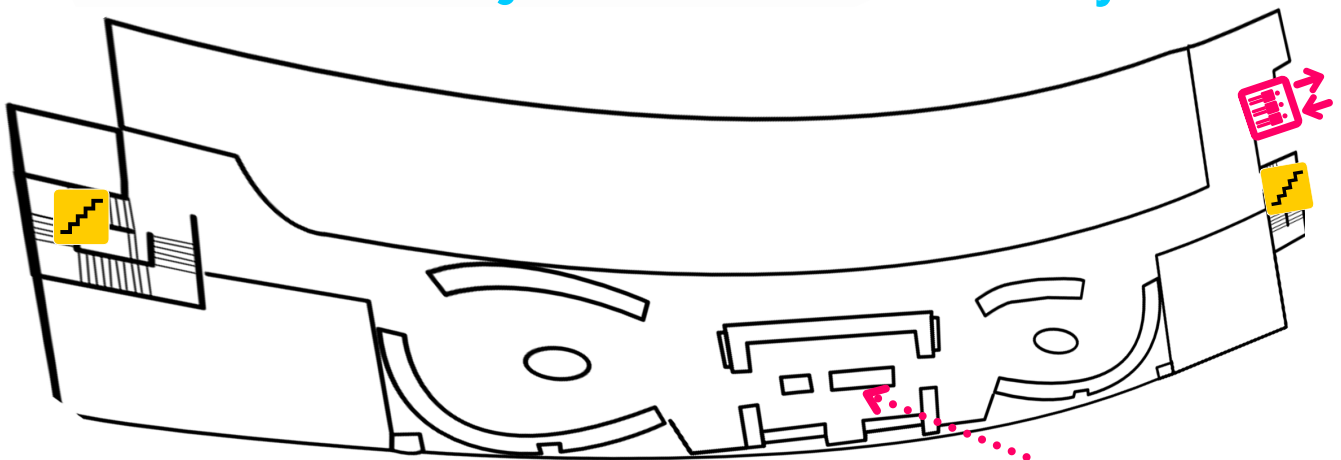

Panel: Lenape Color Guard

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

Object: Wampum Necklace

- Lenape Color Guard, Copan, Oklahoma. c. 2016-2019. Courtesy of Delaware Tribe of Indians of Oklahoma.
- Benjamin West. Penn's Treaty with the Indians. c. 1771-1772. Courtesy of Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Gift of Mrs. Sarah Harrison (The Joseph Harrison Jr. Collection).
- Wampum Necklace (kékwi ehúkwenk). c. 1909. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.