

First Americans Museum

QUAPAW NATION GALLERY GUIDE

Moccasins (ta ha hoⁿ-be). c. 1908.
Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

LEARN MORE

Quapaw Tribal Museum

Quapaw, Oklahoma

(918) 238-3157

quapawtribe.com

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Quapaw tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

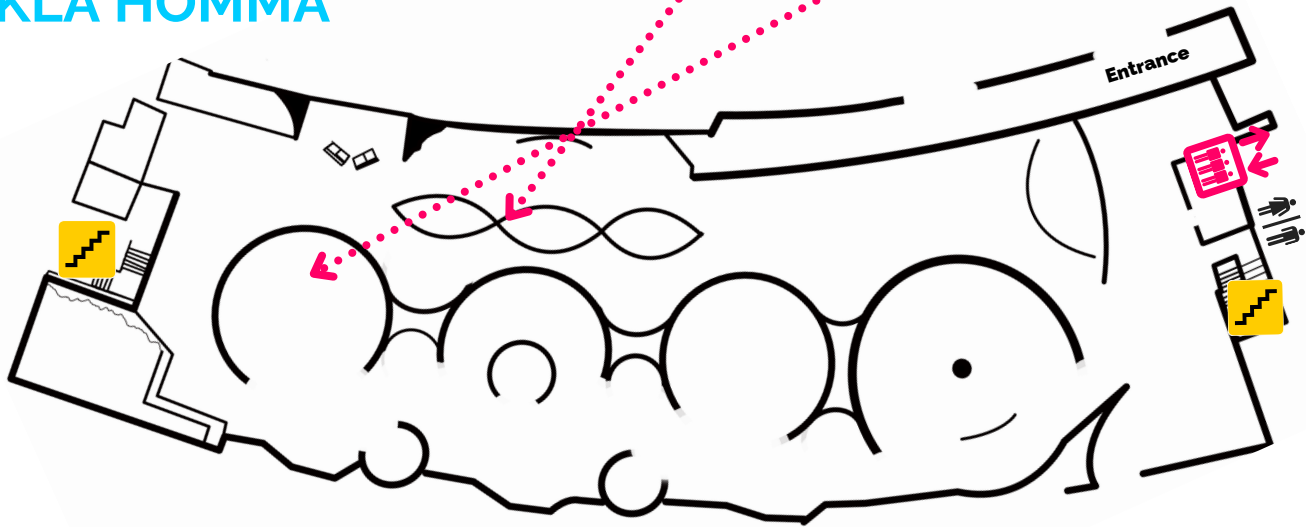

Object: Detroit Lions
Kywin Supernaw

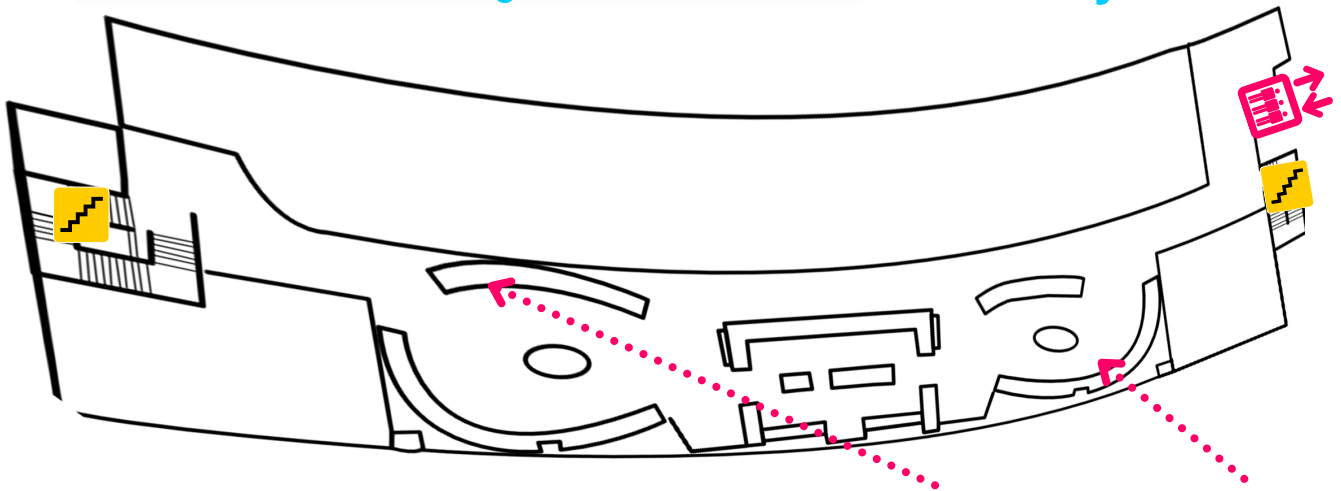

Panel: Louis Ballard

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- Kywin Supernaw (Quapaw/Caddo) of the Detroit Lions. 2000. Courtesy of Tom Pidgeon/Getty Images Sport via Getty Images.
- Louis Ballard (Quapaw) directs the Institute of American Indian Arts Choir. 1968. Photograph by Kay V. Wiest; Courtesy of Institute of American Indian Arts Archives, Santa Fe, New Mexico.
- Brandon Everett Bandy (Quapaw Nation) Crock Drum (de-ho-di-ki). 2020. Commissioned from the Artist.
- Moccasins (ta ha hoⁿ-be). c. 1908. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Crock Drum

Object: Moccasins
(detail)