

THLOPTHLOCCO TRIBAL TOWN GALLERY GUIDE

Stickball Game Necklace (enockv),
c. 1908-1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian,
Smithsonian Institution.

LEARN MORE

Thlopthlocco Tribal Town Memorial Library

Okemah, Oklahoma
(918) 569-6198
tftown.org/library

FAM EXHIBITIONS

- OKLA HOMMA in the Tribal Nations Gallery (Lower Level)
- WINIKO: Life of an Object, Selections from the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian in the Mezzanine Gallery

TRIBAL CONSULTATIONS

The all-Native FAM curatorial team carefully developed content and selected objects in both exhibitions after conducting consultations with tribal leaders and consultants from all 39 tribal nations. FAM looks forward to furthering a reciprocal relationship with all 39 Tribal Nations.

EXHIBITION SELECTIONS

FAM curatorial staff collaborated with Thlopthlocco tribal leaders to select these representative objects and interpretive materials.

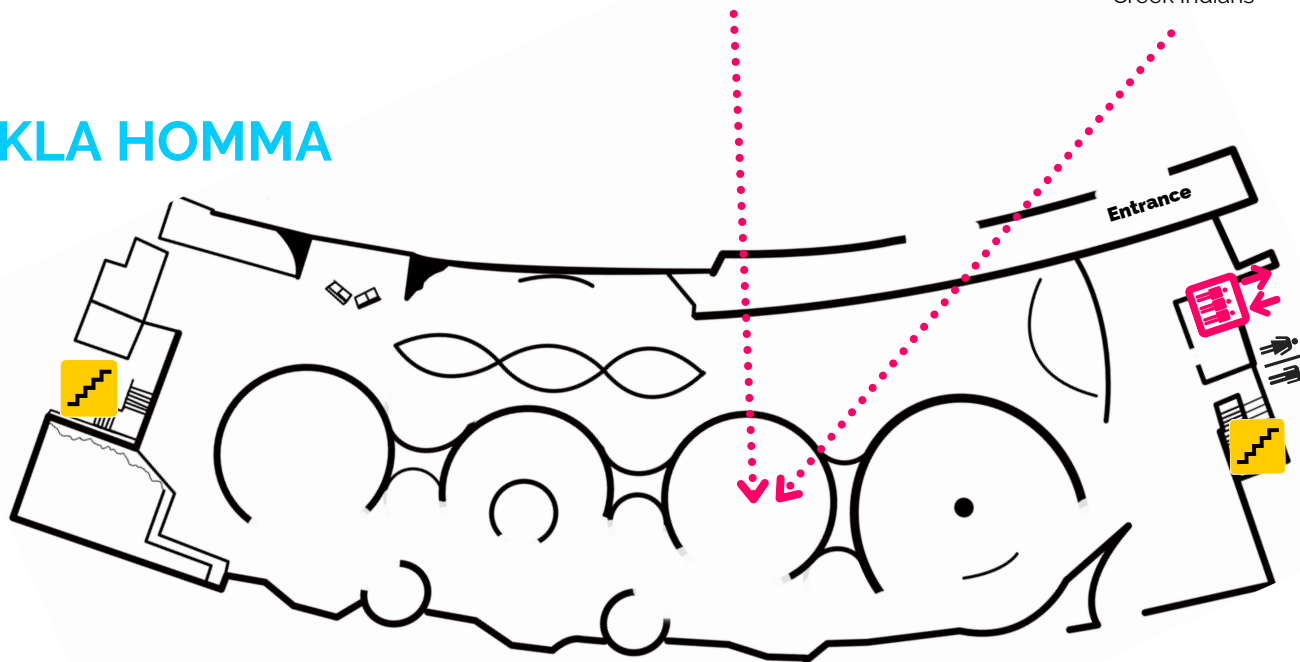

Panel: A Treaty with the Creeks

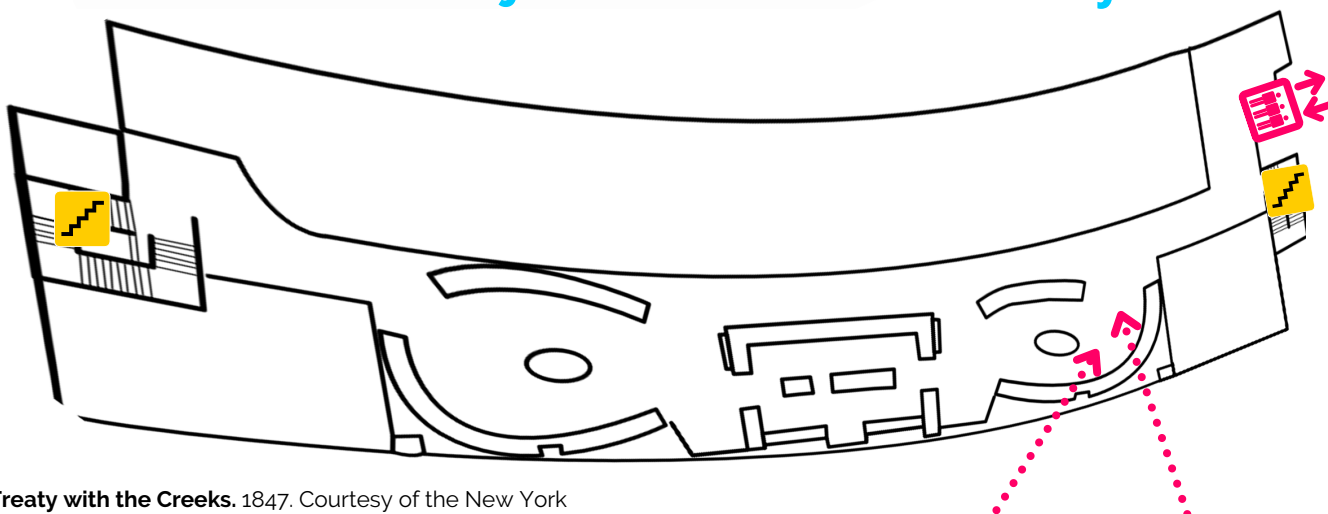

Panel: Delegation of Creek Indians

OKLA HOMMA

WINIKO: Life of an Object (Mezzanine Gallery)

- A Treaty with the Creeks. 1847. Courtesy of the New York Public Library, Wallach Division Picture Collection.
- William Verelst. Audience Given by the Trustees of Georgia to a Delegation of Creek Indians. c. 1734-1735. Courtesy of Winterthur Museum, Gift of Henry Francis du Pont.
- Stickball Breechcloth (takhvkv), c. 1909. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.
- Stickball Game Necklace (enockv), c. 1908-1910. Courtesy of National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution.

Object: Stickball Breechcloth

Object: Stickball Game Necklace (detail)